

O Lord, you reign as king; you are robed in majesty and girded with strength; you have established the world – it shall never be moved – and you have established your throne from of old – you are everlasting! Amen.

Jeremiah on the ruins of Jerusalem

Horace Vernet, 1844

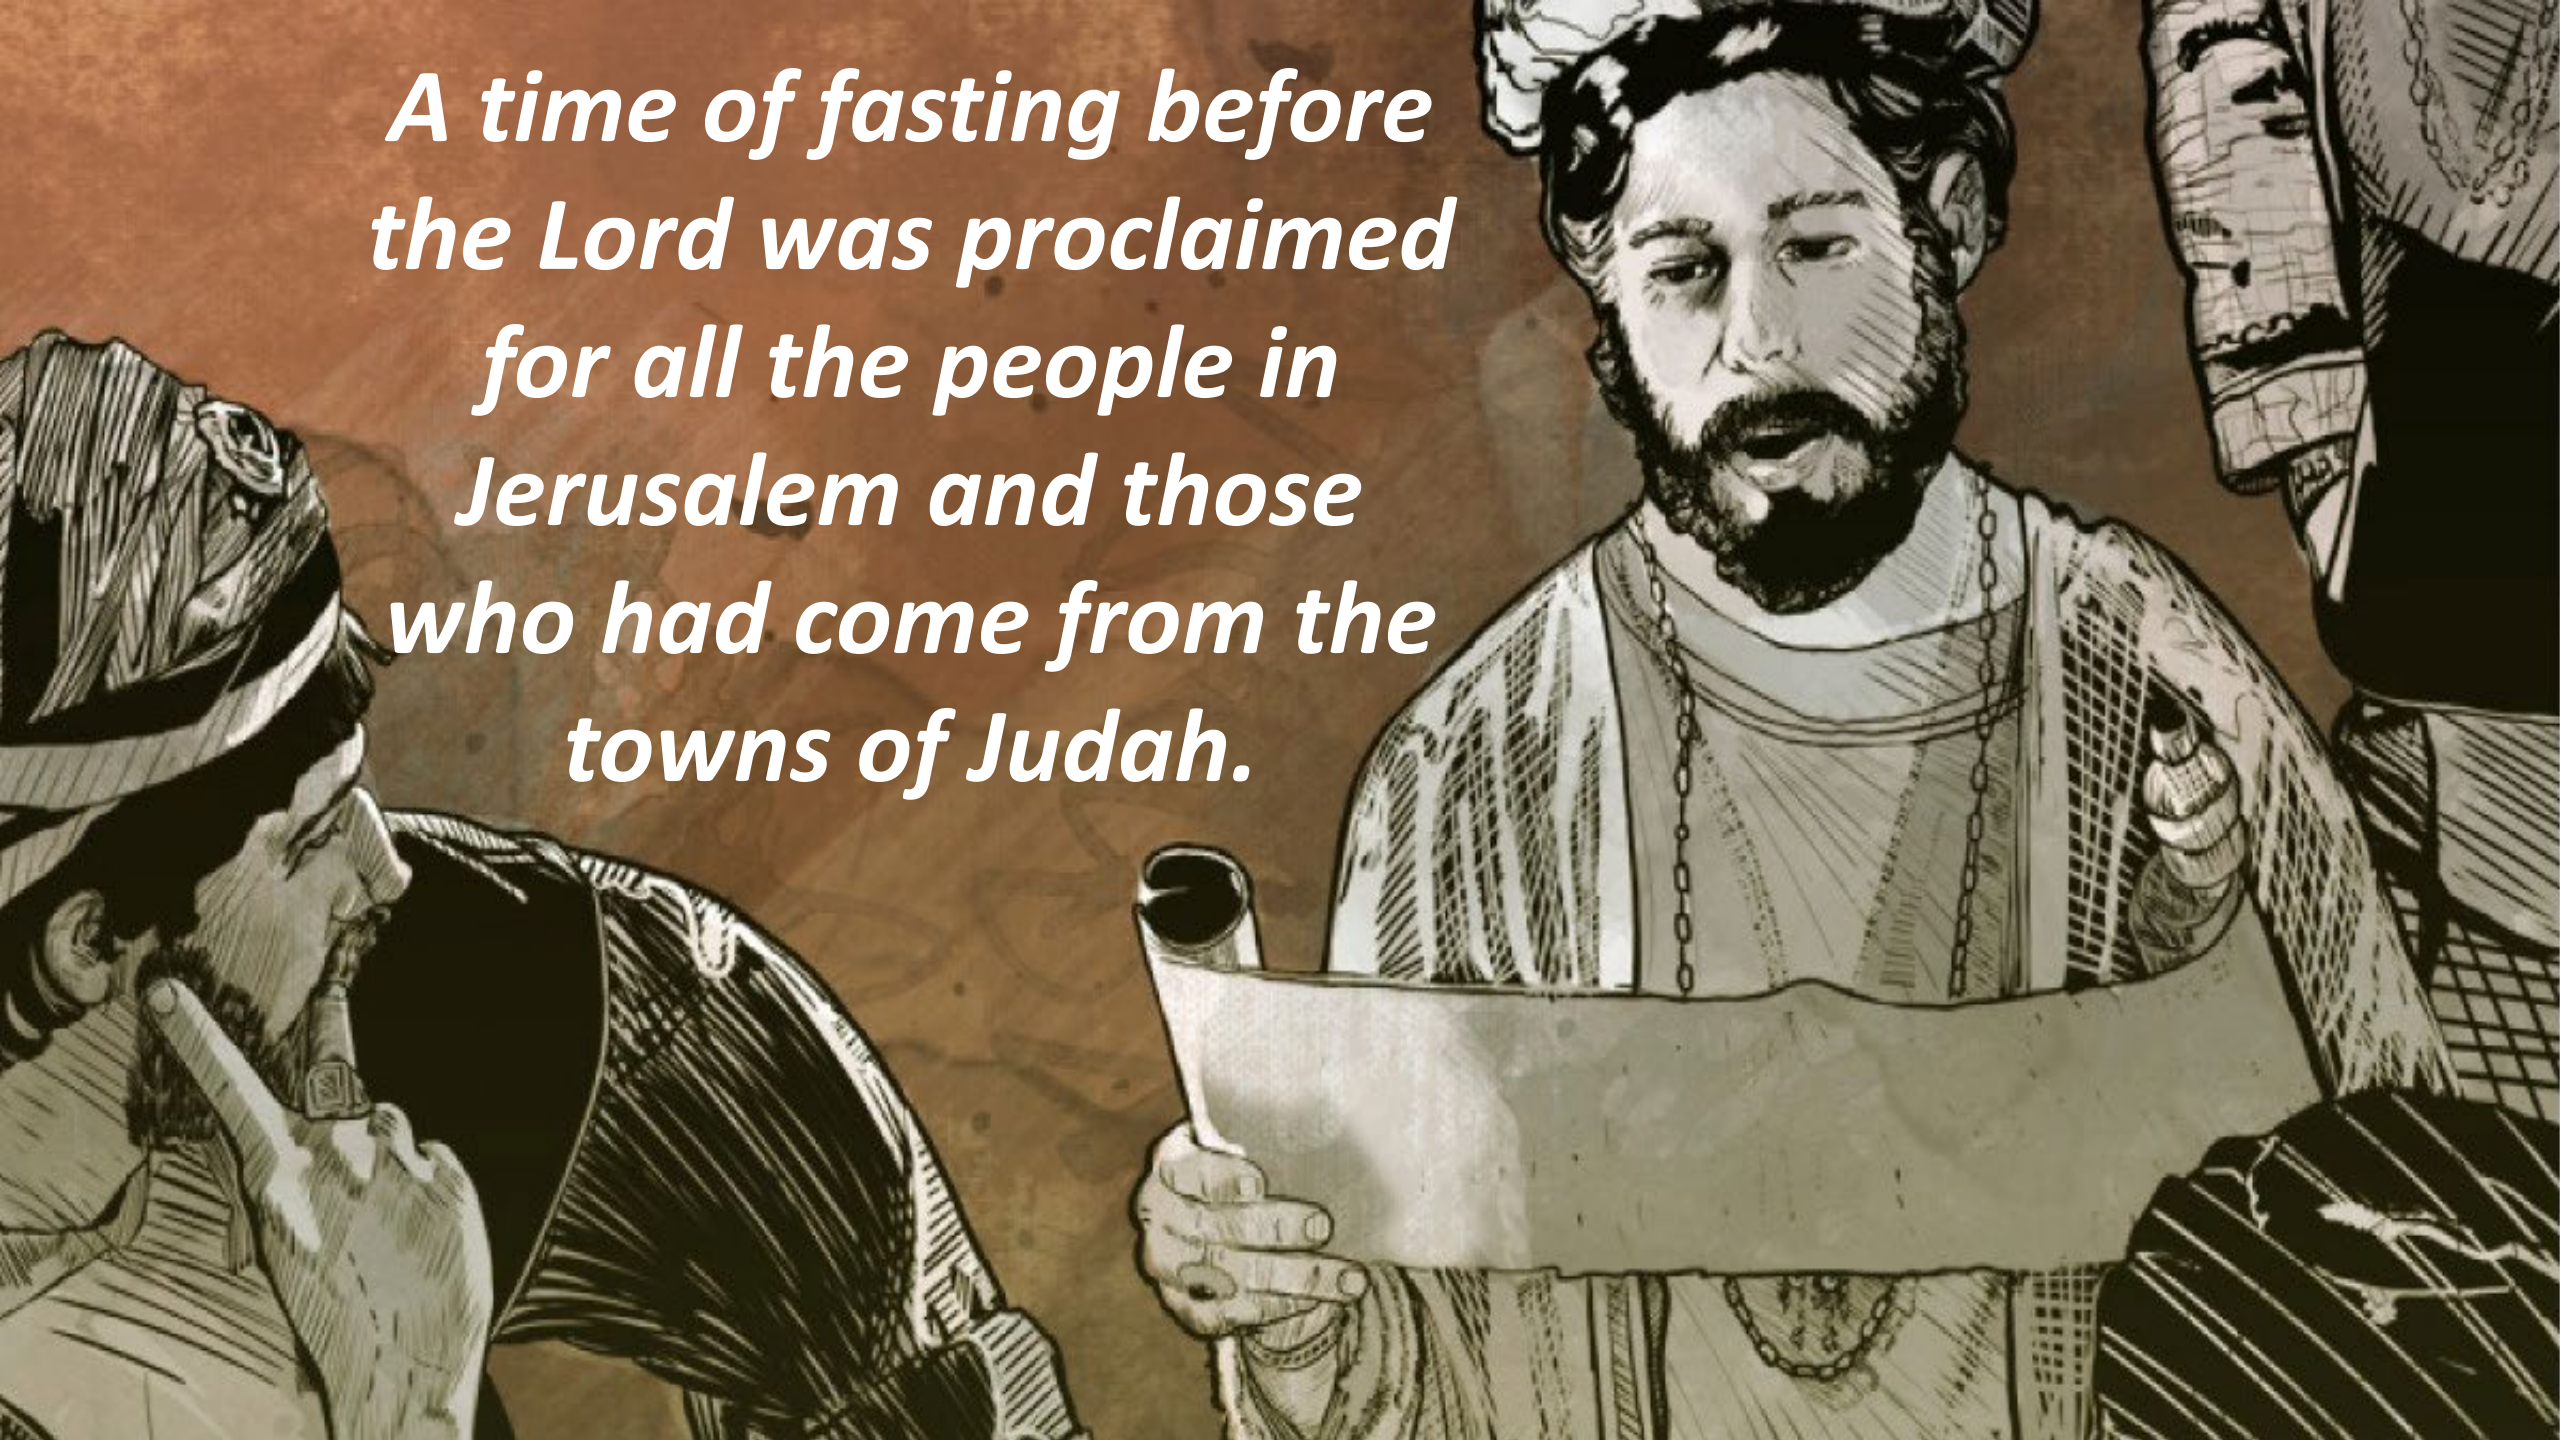

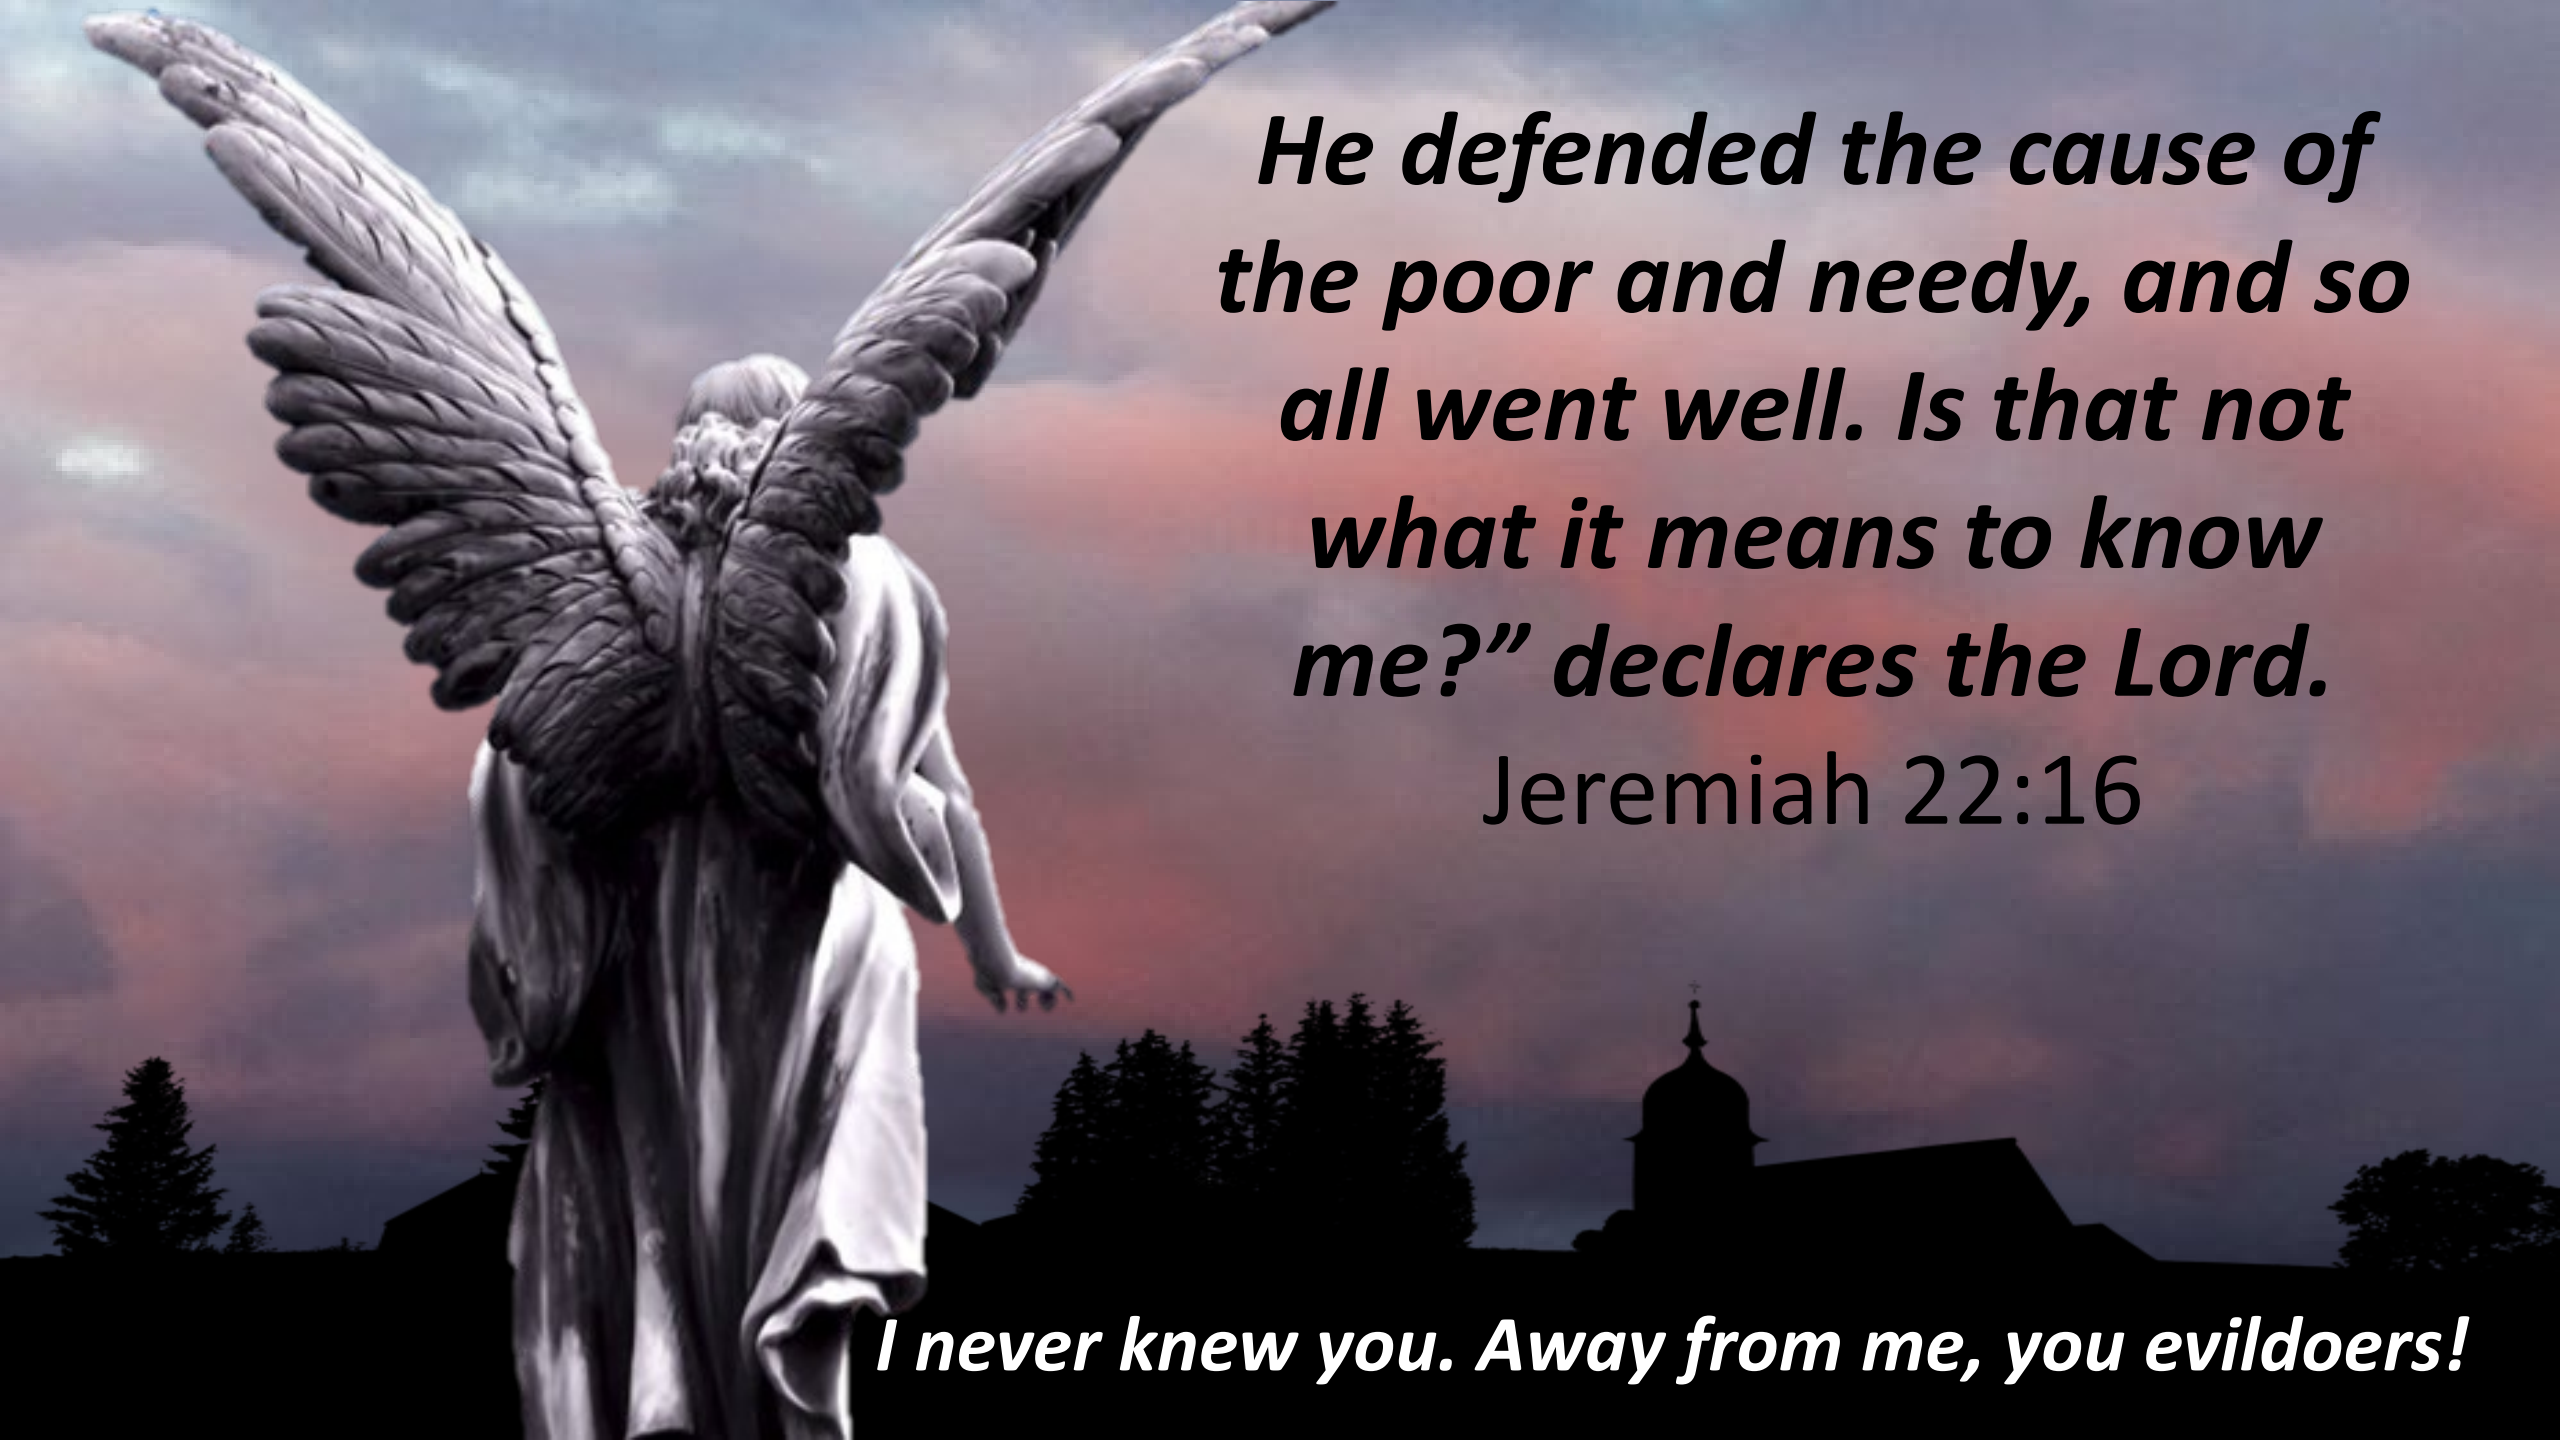

The words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the priests at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. The word of the Lord came to him in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah, and through the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, down to the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem went into exile.

So Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and while Jeremiah dictated all the words the Lord had spoken to him, Baruch wrote them on the scroll.

A time of fasting before the Lord was proclaimed for all the people in Jerusalem and those who had come from the towns of Judah.

He defended the cause of the poor and needy, and so all went well. Is that not what it means to know me?" declares the Lord.

Jeremiah 22:16

I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!

'Be ever hearing, but never understanding;
be ever seeing, but never perceiving.'

*The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. So Jeremiah the prophet said to all the people of Judah and to all those living in Jerusalem: For twenty-three years—from the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah until this very day—the word of the Lord has come to me and I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened.

He will have the burial of a donkey—dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 22:19

Deportation of The Jews to The Babylonian Captivity

Eduard Bendemann, 1815-1889

They were put to death by stoning...
All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance, admitting that they were foreigners and strangers on earth. Hebrews 11

These were all commended for their faith, yet none of them received what had been promised, since God had planned something better for us so that only together with us would they be made perfect. Hebrews 11:40

They were longing for a better country—a heavenly one!

A city skyline is visible in the background, with a prominent glowing archway and a set of stairs leading up to a bright light in the sky. The scene is set against a blue sky with white clouds and a body of water in the foreground.

You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised. For, “In just a little while, he who is coming will come and will not delay.” Hebrews

He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant—not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

2 Corinthians 3:6

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings and queens of the earth; you have loved us and freed us from our sins by your blood and have made us to be a kingdom, priests serving you as our God: to you be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.
